Mission Statement

The Garrison Commander's vision is for Fort Hood to remain the Army's mode power projection platform, training installation, and community. A "Great Plac to train, work and live. The Equal Employment Opportunity Office's (EEO) mis crosswalks to providing a quality living and work environment for Soldiers, fan retirees, and authorized civilians, and supports the belief that a happy soldier better Soldier is a better Solder, thus the mission of the EEO Office is to:

- Serve as the Garrison Commander's primary advisory on EEO/Affirmative Employment.
- Manage the Department of the Army complaint processing system.
- Provide EEO related training.
- Provide leadership and guidance in administering the Special Emphasis and People with a Disability Program.
- Promote the realization of equal opportunity through a continuing affirmative employment program.
- Provide an EEO program institutionalized as an integral part of the Army's mission.

The goals achieved through our mission statement are:

- A work environment free of unlawful discrimination where all employees are valued and respected.
- An EEO Program institutionalized as an integral part of the Army mission.
- A workforce reflective of our nation's diversity.
- All EEO professionals as experts in their field.